

Joint ORS – BSAO Spring Meeting 2017

Kindly sponsored by Wiley publishers and supported by Clinical Otolaryngology
Liverpool Medical Institute
Friday March 10th 2017

0930-1000

Registration and coffee

1000-1230: ORS SESSION

1000-1015: ORS Grant presentation.

Multi-biopsy tumour heterogeneity in squamous carcinomata of the oropharynx. A Lau

1015 – 1100 Free Papers (8 minutes presentation, 2 minutes for questions)

Microwave disinfection of sinus rinse bottles – assessing ideal microwave heating duration to achieve decontamination. A Bartolo

Impact of cochlear implantation on middle ear function: a three-month prospective study. J Wasson.

Going where other methods cannot - A systematic review of 25 years of qualitative research in ENT. M Mather.

Otitis Media with Effusion (OME) in children with Down's Syndrome: A qualitative analysis of parental experience of disease, treatments and healthcare professionals. R Lawrence.

1100-1120: Dutch presentation

Auditory pathway functioning in prelingual deafness. M Lammers.

1120-1140: break

1140-1220: Free papers (8 minutes presentation, 2 minutes for questions)

Exploring the clonal relationships between dysplasia, carcinoma and metastasis. N Sethi.

Self-Eating for Self-Preservation: Is Autophagy a Potential Target in Oropharyngeal squamous cell cancer (OPSCC)? B Cosway.

TP53 Mutation Results in Increased Pentose Phosphate Pathway Flux and Anti-Oxidant System Upregulation Mediated Through TP53-Induced Glycolysis and Apoptosis. M Wilkie.

1220-1240 Developing a research strategy as a new consultant. James O'Hara

1240-1300 Joint societies AGM – merger debate

13:00-13:45 lunch

1345-1600: BSAO SESSION

1345-1400: SFO update Jay Doshi

1400-1415: Education and training – Andrew Robson

1415-1430: INTEGRATE update including BRS Epistaxis audit – Rich Williams

1430-1515: Trainee Research Collaboratives: Updates from each region about what works well for them.

1515-1600

All academic trainees to give a talk:

- Trainees who have presented previously = 3 minute update on their career path and advice for others
- New academic trainees = 10 mins

1600 Presentation of prizes and close